February, 2007 News

February 1, 2007 meeting

Our presenter, Gina Wenger, from the Art Dept. at MSU, gave a very interesting presentation about the Harlem Renaissance, a period in the 30s and 40s that heavily influenced large numbers of artists in many media for decades - and now. She showed slides with art work by some of the major artists of that period and discussed their importance and what the "renaissance" was all about.

Thanks to Gina for a very interesting presentation!
